REGULARS ALONE ATTEND

DISAGREEABLE CLIMATIC CONDITIONS AFFECT PATRONAGE AT LATONIA.

New Star Acts Fractiously at the Post, Becomes Uncontrollable and Race Is Run Without Him—All the Favorites Beaten.

Cincinnati, O., June 10.—Weather and track conditions were decidedly adverse to good racing this afternoon and accounted for a decrease in attendance, none but the regulars braving the inclemency of the elements. The track resembled a huge mortar bed, but had a firm bottom. In the fifth race New Star, an overwhelming favorite, began to act fractiously as soon as he reached the post. He finally threw his rider and bolted out of the track gap leading to the stables. For twenty minutes thereafter he continued his antics and exhausted several attendants, the starter and his assistants, all of whom were trying to lead him back on the track. When he finally was brought back to the post he refused to allow his jockey to mount and again breaking away continued riderless up the track until caught by some stable hands. The field was dispatched without him. The judges at once ordered that his entry be refused here for the rest of the meeting.

Favorites again suffered a Waterloo, the six choices being bowled over. The biggest surprise was furnished by the victory of Sticker in the closing dash. She showed smart form in the going and won all the way.

Pirate Diana's failure in the fifth race was a stunner to the talent, Sorrowful taking her into camp in handy style. With New Star out of the way, the fifth race proved easy for Wine, though had Athie W. gotten away fast she might have given the winner an argument. Starport was much the best seven and clamored for her placing. They were quite a demonstration after the finish due to a mistake on the part of some of the spectators who mistook Adalia's number two for La Toupee's number seven and clamored for her placing. They were convinced of their mistake when Adalia returned to the stand.

A poor lot of maidens engaged in the second and it furnished a tame contest. Prior to the horses going to the post Judge Price ordered Virginia Dunn withdrawn, not being satisfied with her identification. The judges mean to require positive identification of all starters by reputable horsemen. Virginia Dunn was programmed as a four-year-old by Jim Dunn—Dad's Daughter, owned by A. W. Allen and trained by W. T. Overby. She was to have been ridden by W. O. Overby.

Jockey Glasner is still unconscious and the medical men are beginning to worry over his condition. They will make an effort to rouse the boy tonight. Glasner has an aged mother living in Nashville, Tenn., and the news of her son's injury has been kept from her because of her infirm condition.

G. H. Keene purchased Alve B., Alaxie and Sona today, which he will ship with others to race on the inter-mountain circuit.

John Hachmeister received a tempting offer today for the lease of the Grosse Point track in Detroit for a five-days aviation meeting some time in July.

MONTREAL CONDITIONS MORE FAVORABLE.

Sun Shines for a Change and Going for Final Day Will Be Better in Consequence.

Montreal, Que., June 10.—Racing at Blue Bonnets this afternoon was held under conditions more favorable than on any day since the opening of the meeting. The sun shone all day. The going was still heavy, but with continued good weather, the track should be in fairly good condition tomorrow. Small fields ruled this afternoon, but the public found the task of selecting the right ones trying. Dunc Campbell and John Griffin II. scored as favorites.

Dunc Campbell ran coupled with Peccavi as the Mackenzie entry and his stable declared to win with the latter. Dunc Campbell saved the day as Peccavi made a poor showing, finishing last and beaten off. One of the biggest disappointments of the afternoon was furnished by Merry Gift, an odds-on favorite in the third race. At no stage during the running was Merry Gift even dangerous and at the finish she was last of her field, Pocotaligo winning in runaway fashion.

William Walker captured the two-year-old race with his Filigrane colt, Lescar, which beat Eagle Bird a neck in a stirring stretch drive. Mr. Walker came close to landing another purse with Chepontuc. The latter led his opponents in the closing dash until the last stride, when Collis Ormsby just managed to nose him out.

The Chinn pair, Judge Monck and Judge Lassing, were beaten through poor riding. Both colts got the worst of the break in their races and were poorly handled by their riders.

The program tomorrow is made up of eight races and the horses will be called to the post for the opening dash at 2:15.

Francis Nelson arrived from Toronto yesterday and acted as one of the stewards at Blue Bonnets this afternoon, succeeding William P. Riggs, who left for his home in Baltimore this evening.

Hon. J. L. Drearie, provincial secretary of the Province of Quebec, has recommended that the associations in the province open a Futurity race for Canadian National Breeding Bureau foals.

COUNTRY CLUB'S LEASE CONFIRMED.

Victoria, B. C., June 10.—Mr. Justice Gregory has granted an injunction restraining the city from interfering with the forthcoming race meeting under the auspices of the Country Club. The question at issue was as to the binding nature of the lease held by the club, which won its contention that the lease of the track holds good for a period of five years longer.

TIM PIPPIN WINS THE PATCHOGUE.

Rain Falls in the East and Mud Runners Get Chance at Gravesend Track.

New York, June 10.—Heavy rains that fell last night changed the condition of the track at Gravesend and as a result several of the large fields were reduced considerably by scratches. In the feature of the day, the Patchogue Selling Stakes, of sixteen sent out overnight only six went to the post. The race went to Tim Pippin, which found the muddy going to his liking and made a runaway of it to win easily from Twilight Queen, with Cohort, the favorite, third.

The tabled history of the Patchogue Stakes since 1900 is as follows:

| Year. | Winner. | A. | Wt. | Jockey. | Val. | Time. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1900 | Mechanus | 4 | 114 | Maher | $1,725 | 1:13⅘ |
| 1901 | Himself | 3 | 103 | Wonderly | 1,455 | 1:12⅖ |
| 1902 | Cameron | 3 | 108 | O'Connor | 2,040 | 1:10 |
| 1903 | Plater | 3 | 102 | Haack | 2,110 | 1:09 |
| 1904 | Ascension | 5 | 106 | T. Burns | 2,025 | 1:10⅖ |
| 1905 | R'ht and True. | 5 | 101 | L. Smith | 1,815 | 1:10 |
| 1906 | Keator | 4 | 104 | W. Knapp | 2,120 | 1:09⅘ |
| 1907 | Jacobite | 4 | 102 | M. Preston | 1,865 | 1:09⅗ |
| 1908 | Don Enrique | 4 | 100 | Delaby | 2,170 | 1:09 |
| 1909 | Royal Onyx | 5 | 106 | Butwell | 1,260 | 1:10⅖ |
| 1910 | Tim Pippin | 4 | 108 | S. Davis | 1,150 | 1:10⅖ |

Of equal importance was the mile and a quarter handicap, and it was won impressively by Pretend, which was also greatly favored by the going. He raced into a long lead in the early stages and was never in trouble to win easily from Reybourn and Superstition. F. A. Forsythe's Dorante was favorite, but ran a dull race and at the finish was last, being beaten by W. C. Daly's Killiecrankie in the run through the stretch.

Round the World made her first appearance in the east and her victory was of a sort to lead the critics to pronounce her one of the best two-year-olds of the season. Away none too well she speedily raced into the lead and at no time after the first furlong was she straightened to win from Feather Duster and Zeus. It was a handicap and she was top weight, taking up 115 pounds.

Pickaninny and Ardri both won their races easily and at the end of the card Follie Levy was in a soft spot when she met some ordinary selling plater three-year-olds at the five-and-three-quarter-furlongs distance. After the race she was bid up from $2,000 to $3,000 by D. Woodford, trainer for the Beverwyck Stable, but was retained by the usual $5 advance.

H. G. Bedwell shipped his stable of sixteen horses to Latonia today. Thomas McCreevy, a few seasons back trainer for F. Johnson, went along.

H. W. Warner has shipped his horses to Salt Lake City for that meeting.

HAMILTON STABLES IN DEMAND.

Hamilton, Ont., June 10.—The Hamilton Derby, to be decided on the opening day of the spring meeting, Saturday, June 18, promises to bring together many of the best three-year-olds in America. Among the eligibles are Dalhousie, Chief Kee, Donau, Dalmatian, Don Antonio, Royal Report, Fulfill, Polls, Wm. Pitt and Gallant Pirate. The demand for stable room is even greater than last season, and all stabling accommodation within a radius of a mile of the track has been taken up. There are already upwards of 200 horses at the track. These, together with the Montreal contingent and several stables from New York and Latonia, will bring the number up to over 600 horses. The track here is in excellent condition. There is an unusual supply of jumping material here this year and the steeplechases promise to bring out large fields. Arrangements have been made for the usual special to leave Toronto each day at 1:30.

Winner—B. g, by Giganteum—Miss Doone (trained by F. Regan).

Went to post at 2:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. ARDRI moved into the lead quickly and was rated in front all the way, finished gamely and could have won farther away. FRANK PURCELL ran forwardly throughout and finished fast. LORD STANHOPE was also a forward contender all the way and showed a good turn of speed. GOLDEN LEGEND made up ground. BELLEVIEW finished well and ran as if improving. INTRINSIC was prominent for three-quarters, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $1,100; no bid.

Scratched—90016 St. Joseph, 105; 89965[2] Sir Cleges, 105; 89892 Sandrian, 103; 89965 Rockstone, 105; 85081[3] Harlem Maid, 101; 89782 Cowdin, 107; 89913 Jupiter Joe, 103; 89890 Check, 109; 76520 Albani, 101.

Winner—Ch. f, by Lackford—Nellie Bly (trained by W. G. Yanke).

Went to post at 3:21. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. ROUND THE WORLD, a very fast filly, raced through into the lead in the first furlong and, drawing far away, won in a canter. FEATHER DUSTER was outpaced in the early running, but closed a big gap and finished very resolutely. ZEUS made up ground, but was tiring at the end. ANTENOR had no mishaps and quit after chasing the pacemaker closely for three furlongs. WARBLER showed speed, but failed to stay.

Scratched—89985 Lochiel, 108; (89405) Whist, 105; 90033[3] Crash, 98; 89832 Gauntlet, 97.

Time, 11⅕, 23, 35⅕, 48, 1:00⅘, 1:10⅗. Track muddy.

Winner—B. g, by Woolsthorpe—Gretchen, by Luke Blackburn (trained by H. Rites).

Went to post at 3:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. TIM PIPPIN was favored by the going, went into the lead with a rush and, setting a fast pace from the start, easily won all the way. TWILIGHT QUEEN saved ground on the stretch turn and finished very gamely. COHORT had no mishaps and showed speed, but was tiring as if short at the end. BEN LOYAL ran well, but was bumped at the head of the stretch and finished tiring. BESOM and FALCADA both ran very bad races. The winner was entered for $2,000; no bid.

Scratched—(89780) Mary Davis, 110; 89983[3] Follie Levy, 97; 89933 Trance, 107; 89535[2] Campeon, 105; 89964 Prince Gal, 111; 89756[2] Mexoana, 84; 89831 Galley Slave, 89; 89891[2] Pretend, 107; 89353[2] Tubal, 99; 89913 Casque, 102.

Overweights—Besom, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g, by Golden Maxim—Pretence (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 4:08. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. PRETEND, at home in the going, was driven through the first quarter to hold his position next to the rail, but soon ran into a long lead and the result was never afterwards in doubt. REYBOURN went wide on the first turn and lost several lengths, but was always second best. SUPERSTITION finished resolutely. DORANTE quit badly after making a challenge on the far turn.

Overweights—Superstition, 1 pound; Killiecrankie, 5; Dorante, 3.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. R. Bradley is on a flying trip to New York.

R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Naushon is an eligible for the Epsom Derby of 1911.

The Valley Farm horses in training have been shipped to Hamilton from Toronto.

Among the yearlings at Maj. T. J. Carson's Dixiana Farm is a brother to Roseben, one of the last of the Ben Stromes.

J. O. Keene will ship Boggs and others of the Camden horses in his charge to New York at the close of the Latonia meeting.

Etherial, badly injured in a collision with another horse at Sheepshead Bay last fall, is again in training. Etherial has developed into a likely four-year-old.

Will Weathers, an apprentice, who is riding for W. H. Fizer, is a step-son of "Soup" Perkins, one of the most noted of colored race riders, who handled many great horses for the late Byron McClelland.

M. Abadie has thrown out of training for the summer the horses Wool Sandals, Light Blue and Fleuron's Daughter. They are quartered for the present at Douglas Park, Louisville. Mr. Abadie is training four horses at Latonia for Millett & King.

Eugene Lutz purchased Messenger Boy for $130 at a weeding-out sale of the R. F. Carman horses at Tampa last winter. Messenger Boy had been purchased as a yearling by Mr. Carman for $125. Following his victory of Thursday at Latonia, Eugene Lutz turned down an offer of $2,000 for the colt.

William Gerst of Nashville plans to buy some yearlings and will shortly make a trip to the bluegrass region of Kentucky to look over some youngsters that have been offered him, including several by Banastar, the sire of Hanbridge, which George Ham is training for G. H. Holle, Mr. Gerst's son-in-law.

KING GEORGE DELIGHTS ENGLISH TURFMEN.

Lord Derby to Race the Royal Horses This Year—Keene Horses Have Change of Trainers.

London, May 28.—To people interested in racing infinitely the most important recent occurrence was the formal official announcement that King George had taken over his father's horses and would maintain the royal breeding stud and racing stable as King Edward had done. The immense value of King Edward's open participation in racing caused him to be justly regarded as the chief bulwark of the sport and there has been some doubt and apprehension as to what might prove to be King George's course in that regard. Naturally his declared adhesion was received with relief and rejoicing. All of the great London dailies approved the announcement cordially. Of them all, Daily Telegraph came nearest to expressing average British sentiment when it said: "British sportsmen the world over will receive with sincere pleasure the news that King George will carry on the breeding stud at Sandringham and racing stables at Egerton House, Newmarket, bequeathed to him by his illustrious father. For the past few years, as Prince of Wales, he had been attending such important race meetings as Ascot, Goodwood, Newmarket and Epsom with more frequency than ever before, and thus any other decision than that given above would have been unexpected. Moreover, King George was an eye-witness of, and was obviously impressed by, the unparalleled demonstration on Epsom Downs last year, immediately subsequent to Minoru's victory in the Derby.

"Such expressions of delight and loyal good-will were too spontaneous to be misunderstood, and as his majesty accompanied his father onto the course, unguarded and surrounded by a vast crowd, which had with the greatest ease broken down the police cordons, he must have been deeply moved. In view of the satisfactory announcement, all sportsmen will look forward to the day when King George will enjoy the felicity of leading in his first Derby winner, and should it happen to have been reared in the paddocks of the royal stud at Sandringham, the pleasure, needless to say, would be increased tenfold."

King George will, of course, take no part in racing this year and the horses of the royal stable in training have been leased to Lord Derby and will be raced in his name for the present. The late King Edward's horses were raced in the name of the Duke of Devonshire through the period of mourning that followed the death of Queen Victoria. Minoru is not included in the list turned over to Lord Derby and is supposed to have been returned to his breeder, Col. W. Hall Walker, from whom his running qualities had been leased in behalf of King Edward.

Sam Darling for the last year or more has had his stable rather too full, and his older clients have felt conscious of it as well as himself, so that with much regret he is parting with James R. Keene's horses, and they have gone into Butters' charge at Newmarket, nor could they possibly make a better change, if change there was to be. During the time Sam Darling trained for Mr. Keene he won, among other races, the Oaks with Cap and Bells, the Jockey Club Stakes with Disguise, the Ascot Stakes of £2,500 with Sinopi, which Darling bought for him for 600 guineas, and the July Cup with Running Stream. Chacornac, Noonday, Kearsarge, Olympian and Virginia Earle were also good winners for Mr. Keene. Last year Ballot won the Select Stakes, and there were also Coronal, Wedding Bells, Esperanto and Selectman, good winners. Thus we can see for certain that Mr. Keene has done good business as far as Sam Darling is concerned, and there is no doubt that he will be successful with Butters—always provided that he supplies that delightful little trainer with the materials of success. The horses taken over by him are Selectman, Wedding Bells, Esperanto, Suffragette and Lyndin.

Racing was resumed last Monday and in the course of the week moderately interesting sport was witnessed at Lingfield, York, Salisbury and Doncaster, but none of the real cracks of the year was out. One that was thought to belong to that class was tried and found wanting when Helot was unplaced in his first start this year. Helot has, and with some reason, been regarded as one of the best colts seen in the north for some time, but it is feared the son of St. Serf and Proxime is nothing beyond a sprinter. Well supported by his connections the colt had every chance given him to win the Spring Handicap Plate at Doncaster, but after showing well for six furlongs he collapsed and failed to finish among the leading trio. He was giving away considerable weight, however, and may redeem himself later on. Some languid Derby wagering has been done in which Lemberg and Neil Gow have each been supported at 2 to 1, nothing else being thought to possess much chance of carrying off the great race now right at hand.

When racing was suspended three weeks ago consequent upon the lamented death of King Edward, Maher was well in front in the list of winning jockeys with a total of thirty, Saxby coming next with thirteen. The week gone by has put a different complexion upon the position so far as the last named is concerned, for he has not steered a winner and now only stands sixth in order and ties with Fox. His place is taken by Higgs, who has been in good form in the south, and did the "hat trick" at Salisbury, whereby his score was brought to eighteen. Trigg goes up third with sixteen, and is followed by the northern apprentice, J. Clark, and William Griggs, who are both on the fifteen mark. The score of the jockeys whose totals run into double figures is:

| Jockey. | Mts. | 1st. | 2d. | 3d. | Unp. | P. C. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Maher, D. | 129 | 33 | 21 | 12 | 63 | 25.57 |

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

M. B. M., Chicago. 5 to 100 was correct.

A. F. L., Chicago. The wager on Ellerd was a draw.

E. W. N., Chicago. Cannon Shot ran unplaced and the bet lost.

S. W. B., Cincinnati, O. Ella Bryson's time was 1:00⅗ in race 89939.

W. B. C., Cincinnati, O. Have no list of the horses inquired about.

Inquirer, Chicago. The bet on Ben Uncas lost because he ran unplaced.

F. A. S., Cincinnati, O. The bet applied to the first race and was a draw.

Geo. S., St. Louis, Mo. The first bet won on Hilarious, the "if coming" bet lost on Grasmere.

J. K., Cincinnati, O. Salt Lake City racing begins at 3 p. m., equivalent to 4 p. m. Chicago time.

J. P. R., Danville, Ill. The straight parlay lost and the place parlay won as a single place bet on Shapdale, and the sum due was $15.

Frank H., Windsor, Ont. Regret to say cannot inform you, the necessary data not being permitted to be made public by the track authorities.

P. J. F., Chicago. Rockstone's last winning race was at Aqueduct November 4, 1909. Distance, six and a half furlongs, track fast, price 7 to 1, weight 105 pounds. Cotytto was second, Black Mary third and seven ran unplaced.

Sol W., Milwaukee, Wis. The bet on "Eldred" was a draw, it being Elder that was entered and ran. The name was telegraphed wrongly and appeared as Ellerd in the entries and there is no doubt this was the horse meant by the backer.

S. B., St. Louis, Mo. If Royal Report had won you would have expected payment and no doubt have received it promptly. Royal Report won only in one race and it was your purpose to back him in that race. The parlay lost.

J. C. McD., St. Louis, Mo. Grasmere was duly entered, but through an error at the track his name was not sent out in the entry list furnished for publication. In practical effect it was the same as an added starter, but there was the difference that Grasmere was in the race from the start and was not added.

J. M. K., St. Louis, Mo. Presumably your query was answered to Doxie in paper of June 9. That reply was on the supposition that the Charles Green bet had been paid for when made, and that the Oswald B. bet was to be made from any "coming" money. There should always be a definite understanding in such cases.

P. K., Chicago. The fourth race at Louisville, May 24, the Tobacco Stakes, was duly run on that day. Waponoca was not entered when the stake closed early in the year and so could not be an added starter. Your bet, if made on that race, was void from the start. The race in which Waponoca ran second took place on the following day, May 25.

CANADIANS ENDORSE KING GEORGE'S COURSE.

As the Times points out, if the turf were the vile thing its enemies represent it to be, King Edward would not have supported it for the greater part of his life. Neither would his son have so early signified his intention of maintaining the extensive interest of his father in the sport. It is a good thing for racing that this is so. It means that the sport in England will be maintained at a high level, and that it will remain popular, as it always has been, with the masses. Here in Canada the turf has been fortunate in having many well-known gentlemen taking an active interest in its affairs and the sport has been generally free from scandal and abuse, though that has not saved it from attack and the imposition of stringent restrictions. Those who have fought the battle for the thoroughbred in Canada will find encouragement in the active participation of King George in the sport.—Montreal Gazette.

Winner—B. c, by Filigrane—Short Cake (trained by W. Walker).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. LESCAR outbroke his opponents and drew away into a long lead after entering the homestretch, but tired badly in the last sixteenth. EAGLE BIRD swerved over to the inside at the sixteenth post, then almost got up to win. JUDGE MONCK began slowly and was sharply cut off on the far turn, then closed a big gap and finished with a rush. BORROWER was always outpaced. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Time, 4:32. Track heavy.
Winner—B. g, by Sombrero—Celebrity (trained by H. Flippen).
Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. HIGH HAT blundered at several of the fences, but showed the most speed on the flat, stood off several challenges from DR. KOCH and drew away from JOHN DILLON in the last sixteenth. The latter moved up with a game challenge when going to the last jump, but was jostled by the winner and DR. KOCH in the last furlong. DR. KOCH went well, but finally quit under punishment. The others were beaten off. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Boanerges—Bettie Barry (trained by J. Milburn).
Went to post at 4:58. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. MON AMI rushed to the front soon after the start and, after racing KID into defeat, drew away into a good lead and kept it. ED KECK outbroke the others, but dropped back in the first quarter, then closed up while rounding the far turn, but tired in the last furlong. JUDGE LASSING, as good as left, moved up with a rush on the stretch turn, but the effort told at the end. KID showed speed and was eased up when he quit. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

$2 mutuels paid, Sticker, $55.00 straight, $16.40 place, $8.70 show; Stone Street, $12.10 place, $6.60 show; Dave Nicholson, $47.20 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Sticker, 2650 to 100 straight, 720 to 100 place, 335 to 100 show; Stone Street, 505 to 100 place, 230 to 100 show; Dave Nicholson, 2260 to 100 show.

Winner—B. f, by Yankee—Courtplaster (trained by L. C. Shobe).

Went to post at 5:31. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. STICKER took the lead quickly, was hard ridden all the way and, outpacing the others throughout, won in a canter. STONE STREET began slowly and closed a big gap. DAVE NICHOLSON went well and outstayed ALMA BOY in the final drive. The latter showed early speed, but quit. ALICE had no mishaps and ran poorly. CAMEL was beaten off all the way. GOLCONDA ran a bad race. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—89971 Mr. Smarty, 88; 89878 Nettie Traver, 101; 89864 Water Lake, 110.

Overweights—Sticker, 3 pounds.
